

LEGALLY BLONDE

“Oh my God, oh my God you guys!” Thank you all SO much for your time, effort, energy and talent in this audition process. Once again, you impressed the entire production staff! Thank you for your patience while we came to our difficult casting decisions.

We reached our decision based on your audition and information provided to us by each of you on your audition forms - such as conflicts and “big role”/ “any role” requests. If you marked "Big Role Only" on the audition form and were not selected for one of those roles, we honored your request and did not cast you in the ensemble. Conflicts also played a big part in our decision making as it is becoming increasingly difficult to juggle and balance all the schedules.

Our first meeting will be Tuesday 12/13 - in the theatre at 2:30. We will take your measurements, do head shots and do a read through. If you cannot make it due to a prior appointment you must let me or Tim know – otherwise we will take your absence as your desire to drop the show. See you then!
